All the performers acquitted themselves with distinction.

A Wellsburg Fire.

The Presbyterian parsonage at Wellsburg, a handsome brick structure on North Main street, occupied by Rev. C. H. McDonald and family, was seriously damaged by fire yesterday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock. Some waste paper was being burned in a grate, and this started a blaze in the attic, which had gained considerable headway when the fire department arrived. Good work was done, however, and the fire extinguished before it reached the lower floors. All the furniture was removed from the house and the greater damage is from water. There is insurance of $2,000 on the building—$1,500 in the Phoenix, of Wheeling, and $500 in the Phoenix, of London. Mr. McDonald had $1,000 insurance on his furniture in the Franklin, of Wheeling. The total loss will probably not exceed $1,000.

NEARLY A TRAGEDY.

An Elm Grove car Leaves the Track at Leatherwood and DUMPS FIFTEEN PASSENGERS

Down an Embankment, but Without Serious Injury to any of Them—Happily the car did not go Down the Embankment Else There Would Have Been a Terrible Tragedy. Those who Were Slightly Injured.

Very near to a tragedy was the accident on the Wheeling & Elm Grove electric road at Leatherwood yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, when an open summer car left the track and dumped the fifteen or more passengers together with the conductor and motorman, down an eight-foot embankment. The car hung on the verge, missing going down upon the struggling mass of humanity at the foot of the embankment, by a very slight margin. Had the car followed its passengers there would have been a terrible tragedy.

The accident occurred on the curve this side of Leatherwood station, just beyond the iron bridge that crosses the Woods run fork of Wheeling creek. The car was coming to the city, with Motorman Stylis at the lever. The car struck the curve at such high speed that it toppled over at so great an angle that the occupants were precipitated from their seats in an indiscriminate mass down the embankment. Fortunately, as stated above, the car did not follow, but remained partially on the ties.

Several persons received minor injuries, among them the following:

Mrs. Frank Wendel and little child; the child's injuries were more severe, and included bleeding from the mouth. Nelson Vance, slightly injured. James P. Maxwell, leg slightly injured.

Others received bruises, but there were no serious injuries, happily.

WALLACE'S CIRCUS COMING.

The Big Shows will Spread Their Tents Here Next Tuesday.

Of the Wallace circus, which exhibits at Bridge park, Island, next Tuesday, the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune has the following:

Covington and Cincinnati were both circus mad yesterday, and the Wallace show, the first of the season in these parts, found the multitude eager and anxious to accord them a welcome, and herald with loud acclaim the excellence of the performance, testifying not alone by their presence but by the most demonstrative applause, that the show was thoroughly to their liking, the one regret being that its stay in this city was of such short duration.

The splendid street parade, given early in the day, undoubtedly had much to do with the attendance, as it may be said, and with emphasis, that none of the many shows on either side of the river within the past few years have ever exhibited on the streets such a procession of magnificent horses, beautiful women, bright, clean and really gorgeous costumes as those shown yesterday by the Wallace management. The performances were, it is pleasant to add, thoroughly in keeping with the promise of the parade, and nothing equaling them has been presented to local circus goers within a decade.

Special Massillon Excursion.

MANY old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. George S. Anderson, of Toosville, York county, Pa., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by druggists.
